

Mission San Carlos Borromeo de Carmelo

by Aidan P

This mission was founded June 3, 1770. It was the 2nd out of 20 missions built in California. It was founded by the Spanish. It's located is at the south end of Carmel. It was founded for being headquarters. An interesting fact is that it was built headquarters of Alta, California.

