

San Diego de Alcalá

By Arely G

San Diego de Alcalá mission was founded on July 16, 1769. This is the first one out of 21. This mission was founded by Junipero Serra. This mission is located on 10818 San Diego Mission Rd. in San Diego. This mission was founded because Father Junipero Serra wanted the Indians to come to the mission and so the Indians can get along with the Mexicans. This mission was destroyed in 1803 and 1812 because of earthquakes. It is easy to miss the mission. It sits on top of a hill. It has 5 bells. It grows pretty flowers.
