

San Antonio De Padua

By Jonathan

The San Antonio de Padua was found on July 14. It is the third of the twenty one California missions. It was founded by Tehhaya or Sextapay. It is located 40 miles north of Paso Robles. It was founded because people wanted to spread the the Catholic religion. The mission is named for Saint Anthony. The mission is largely restored from the rebuilt original.