

Santa Barbara

by Hahna

The Santa Barbara mission was the tenth out of 21 missions. It was founded on December 4, 1786. The mission was founded by Father Junipero Serra. It was founded because people wanted to spread their Catholic religion. The Santa Barbara mission is the only mission operated since it was founded. Karana from Island of the Blue Dolphins was buried in the mission's cemetery in 1853.